Vivaad

"Don't raise your voice, improve your argument." - Desmond Tutu

Number of Participants: 2

Eligibility: XIth - XIIth

Vivaad is a debating event testing the knowledge, reason, sense and intellect of the participants. Two teams of debaters will be put against each other, one team for the motion and the other team against the motion. Topics will be sent to the participating schools via email on the 15th of October. The proposition for a round will be decided through a coin toss on the day of the competition.

The debate will follow the Public Forum Debate format, which is as follows:

Team A: First Speaker: Constructive Speech	1.5 minutes
Team B: First Speaker: Constructive Speech	1.5 minutes
Crossfire (between first speakers)	1.5 minutes
Team A: Second Speaker: Rebuttal	1.5 minutes
Team B: Second Speaker: Rebuttal	1.5 minutes
Crossfire (between second speakers)	1.5 minutes
Team A: First Speaker: Summary	1 minute
Team B: First Speaker: Summary	1 minute
Grand Crossfire (All speakers)	2 minutes
Team A: Second Speaker: Final Focus	1 minute
Team B: Second Speaker: Final Focus	1 minute

Constructive Speech

One of the members of the team gives arguments either for or against the resolution, depending on the team's proposition.

Crossfire

The first speaker begins crossfire by asking a question to the second speaker. The two debaters directly ask each other questions and answer questions of their opponent.

Rebuttal

The second speaker gives a rebuttal speech. The second speaker can 'rehab' the first speaker's rebuttals.

Grand Crossfire

All four debaters can question and answer questions of each other. The first speaker begins Grand Crossfire by asking the first question.

Summary

Summary speech of the debate includes further rebuttal of the opponent's case and reiteration of the team's case

Final Focus

In the Final Focus, the speakers explain why their team won the round. No new arguments can be introduced in the Final Focus and it should summarize the debate

Rules

- The Debate will follow the 'Public Forum Debate' Format.
- Participants should not exceed the speaking time of the round.
- Proposition will be decided 15 Minutes before the Debate with a Coin Toss.
- Participants should focus on making persuasive, logical arguments and research based arguments. It is expected that arguments will be supported with evidence, rather than just rhetoric.
- No extra time will be given for preparation.
- Use of electronics is prohibited.
- The Jury's decision will be final and binding

Note: The registrations for this Event are based on first come first serve basis and have a limited number of 16 teams. The first 16 teams to register for the event will be allowed to participate.

Tryst with Economy

"At the stroke of the midnight hour, when the world sleeps, India will awake to life and freedom." – Jawaharlal Nehru

Number of Participants: 1

Eligibility: XIth - XIIth

Tryst with Economy is an economic simulation where participants will be provided with an economic problem and they would have to design a policy, program or a set of actions to solve the same. The economic problem would be ambiguous in nature and can be related to the past, present or the future, to India, European Union, or any other country or group of countries in the world.

The participants have to present their policy or program, on the day of the Competition, 3rd November 2017. The participants have to give an oral presentation and also submit a hard copy of their policy or program.

The policy or program made by the participants should include a statistical and economical study of the problem, the drafting and implementation of the policy or program and any other aspects the participants may wish to add.

Rules

- The Economic Adversity will be emailed to the Student Representative of the school on 15th of October.
- The participants may refer to, but not plagiarize existing policies and programs. Plagiarism will lead to disqualification; any references must be cited in the hard copy.
- The participant will be allotted 5 Minutes for their presentation.
- There is no word limit for the hard copy.

Judgment Criteria - Participants would be judged on their overall policy and program and related criterions; creativity, critical thinking, economic acumen and analysis.
